

Genealogical Request Procedures

The Reference Department of JMRL does not have the resources to reply to genealogical inquiries. The resources below may be helpful in your research on Charlottesville, Albemarle, other local counties, and Virginia genealogy.

Albemarle Charlottesville Historical Society and Charlottesville-Albemarle Historical Collection 200 2nd Street NE, Charlottesville VA 22902.

<http://www.albemarlehistory.org/home.html>

The Library of Virginia

800 East Broad Street, Richmond, VA 23219-8000

<http://www.lva.lib.va.us/whatwehave/gene/index.htm>

Central Virginia Genealogical Association

<http://cvga.avenue.org/>

African American Genealogy Group of Charlottesville/Albemarle

<http://aagg.avenue.org/>

Louisa County Historical Society

<http://trevilians.com/lchs.htm>

Nelson County Historical Society

<http://www.nelsonhistorical.com/>

University of Virginia, Charlottesville VA

Although University of Virginia's Special Collections is unable to undertake detailed genealogical research, they have a website that is quite helpful genealogists:

<http://www2.lib.virginia.edu/genealogy/>

Virginia Department of Health – Vital Records

P.O. Box 2448, Richmond, Virginia 23218-2448

109 Governor Street, Richmond, Virginia 23219

http://www.vdh.state.va.us/vital_records/gene.htm

Virginia Genealogical Society

5001 West Broad Street, Suite 115, Richmond VA 23230.

<http://www.vgs.org/>

Virginia Historical Society

428 North Boulevard, Richmond VA 23220.

<http://www.vahistorical.org/>

These and other useful genealogical sites can be found at the Jefferson-Madison Regional Library Web Site at <http://jmrl.org/on-links.htm>