

Hint for Using the Online Catalog My Reading History

Having trouble remembering which books you've read? You may want to set up "My Reading History."

- Go to jmrl.org/catalog
- Select "My Account" on the navigation bar under the name of the library.
- On the resulting screen type in your name and library card number.
- On that screen click "My Reading History" on the far right..
- The screen will display "Reading History is Off, click here to turn ON."
- Click the link to turn your Reading History on.

From that point on, a personalized record of the books you check out will be recorded.

Please remember that your personalized reading history becomes a part of your library record and is subject to the same legal inquiries and searches.

You may delete items from your history and/or opt out at any time.
