

PORTRAITS IN THE LIBRARIES

Portraits in the libraries will be restricted to those of Thomas Jefferson and James Madison, the portrait of Claudius Crozet in the Crozet Branch Library, and any other portraits that were accepted in the libraries before this policy was adopted.

Staff members will be memorialized in accordance with Policy Section 2.8, not by a portrait in the library.

Donations of portraits to the library will be governed by Policy Section 4.13, Accepting Gifts of Library Materials.

Adopted May 20, 2002