

Position: Books Sandwiched In Committee Volunteer

Overview: Volunteers plan the book review program which is held on the 3rd Friday of the month from September through May.

Location/Department: Northside Library

Reports to: Lindsay Ideson

Responsibilities:

- Meet as a committee to review prospective books & make final selections
- Find & schedule community members to present the review
- Set up room & make refreshments
- Introduce speaker & host event

Benefits:

- Be an integral part of library programming
- Gain familiarity with nonfiction titles
- Get to know interesting local people

Training/Support available: Experienced committee members offer guidance. New members receive a written outline explaining how the program operates.

Qualifications:

- Volunteers with an interest in currently-published books, a knowledge of the community, and a willingness to make contacts with potential speakers would be especially helpful.

Commitment: minimum 12 month commitment

Apply Here

Contact:
Heather Pehnec
Volunteer Coordinator
434.979.7151 x 4 or volunteer@jmrl.org