

Position: Writing Critique Group Volunteer

Overview: Serve as the facilitator for an established writing critique group that meets on the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month.

Location/Department: Central Library

Reports to: Abby Cox

Responsibilities:

- Guide and facilitate twice-monthly critique group meetings

Benefits:

- Be an integral part of a local writing group
- Share a passion for writing with others in the community

Training/Support available: Volunteer will be joining an established writing group with an opportunity to sit in on one or more sessions led by the current facilitator.

Qualifications:

- Passion for writing
- Experience giving and receiving constructive criticism
- Desire to engage with and help promote the local writing community

Commitment: minimum 12 month commitment

Apply Here

Contact:
Heather Pehnec
Volunteer Coordinator
434.979.7151 x 6695 or volunteer@jmrl.org