

DISPLAYS OF ORIGINAL ART

Original pieces of art will be accepted for display at all Library locations at the discretion of the Director and/or Branch Manager. In accepting art for display the Director and/or Branch Manager shall be guided by JMRL's Mission and criteria for selection of other materials. Student art shows qualify for display as components of Children's and Young Adult programming. Displays may not include defaming or obscene materials as defined by the United States Supreme Court, or material which could lead to a breach of peace or which advocate the violation of state criminal laws.

Prior to display, artists must complete a Liability Release form which will hold harmless the Library Trustees, employees, and JMRL jurisdictions, if loss or damage occurs while their materials are in the possession of the Library.

The Library reserves the right to limit or cancel an exhibit at any time. The Library will not act as agent for the sale of materials, and none of the exhibited materials may be priced. Artists will be allowed to display biographical information and their names and addresses so that patrons may contact them directly.
