

EMERGENCIES

In any emergency, the first goal is to ensure the safety of patrons and staff. The second goal is to preserve the collection and other materials that will provide for continued operation. Library administration shall maintain and annually review branch Emergency Action Plans, and ensure that staff are trained on local Emergency Action Plans.